DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The terms "flexible" and "metal thin film" in claims 1, 4, 5 and 6 are relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The terms "flexible" and "metal thin" are not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention. Hence, it is unclear how "flexible" or how much "flexibility" the heat radiating sheet must have in order to meet the claim limitations.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) or (e) as being anticipated by Myers et al (US 2002/0185199 A1 or USPN 6,929,705.) Myers et al teach a coated metallic sheet comprising a base metal substrate and a coating layer on both surfaces of the substrate wherein the coating is formed from a liquid dispersion of resin and inorganic particles such as silicon oxide, aluminum oxide and kaolin wherein the Examiner takes the position that the upper coating reads upon the broadly claimed "heat radiating film", the metal substrate reads upon the broad "heat absorbing layer" and the lower coating reads upon the broadly claimed "adhesive layer consisting of a heat conductive adhesive agent" (Abstract; Figures; Col. 9, lines 2-8.)
